

muth1438

Following

muth1438 We have men (and women!) who love death as ardently as you love your lives!

I was watching an American documentary on a battle in Afghanistan and the Americans are such cowards. Crying and shaking on the battlefield and saying "our aim is to get everyone home where they belong" While our mens aim on the battlefield is to reunite with our Lord. Our honor is in jihad, either victory or shahadah.

muth1438 These men cry for their lives while we cry for our death(shahadah)!
